

Engineer's Seal

From the Professional Engineers Act:

40. (2) Every person who is not a holder of a licence or a temporary licence and who,

(c) uses a seal that will lead to the belief that the person is a professional engineer, is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable for the first offence to a fine of not more than $10,000 and for each subsequent offence to a fine of not more than $25,000.

(3) Every person who is not acting under and in accordance with a certificate of authorization and who,

(b) uses a seal that will lead to the belief that the person may provide to the public services that are within the practice of professional engineering, is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable for the first offence to a fine of not more than $10,000 and for each subsequent offence to a fine of not more than $25,000.

From Ontario Regulation 941:

52. (1) Every Member shall have a seal of a design approved by the Council, the impression of which shall include, ...

52. (3) Every holder of a temporary licence shall have a seal of a design approved by the Council, the impression of which shall include, ...

52. (3.1) Every holder of a provisional licence shall have a seal of a design approved by the Council, the impression of which shall include,

52. (4) Every holder of a limited licence shall have a seal of a design approved by the Council, the impression of which shall include,

53. Every holder of a licence, temporary licence, provisional licence or limited licence who provides to the public a service that is within the practice of professional engineering shall sign, date and affix the holder's seal to every final drawing, specification, plan, report or other document prepared or checked by the holder as part of the service before it is issued.

75. A Member or holder of a temporary licence, a provisional licence, a limited licence or a certificate of authorization may advertise only,

(d) without reference to or use of the professional seal of the Member or holder or the seal of the Association.

72. (2) For the purposes of the Act and this Regulation, "professional misconduct" means,

(e) signing or sealing a final drawing, specification, plan, report or other document not actually prepared or checked by the practitioner,