

Provisional Licences

From the Professional Engineers Act:

Definition

1. In this Act, “provisional licence” means a provisional licence to engage in the practice of professional engineering issued under this Act.

Issuance of temporary, provisional or limited licence

18.(1) The Registrar shall issue a temporary licence, a provisional licence or a limited licence to a natural person who applies therefor in accordance with the regulations and who meets the requirements and qualifications for the issuance of the temporary licence, the provisional licence or the limited licence set out in the regulations.

18.(5) A holder of a temporary licence, a provisional licence or a limited licence is not a member of the Association.

From Ontario Regulation 941:

44.1 (1) The Registrar may grant a provisional licence to an applicant who complies with the requirements of paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 5 of subsection 33 (1).

44. (2) The following conditions apply to every provisional licence:

1. The provisional licence is valid for 12 months from the date of issue. It may be renewed once for up to 12 months if the Registrar is of the opinion that renewal is necessary to enable the applicant to acquire the experience required by paragraph 4 of subsection 33 (1).
2. The holder of the provisional licence is entitled to practise professional engineering only under the supervision of a professional engineer, and shall not issue a final drawing, specification, plan, report or other document unless the supervising professional engineer also signs and dates it and affixes his or her seal to it.
