

Temporary Licences

From the Professional Engineers Act:

Definitions

1. In this Act “temporary licence” means a temporary licence to engage in the practice of professional engineering issued under this Act.

Professional responsibility of supervising professional engineer

17. (2) A member of the Association or a holder of a temporary licence who personally supervises and directs the providing of services within the practice of professional engineering by a holder of a certificate of authorization or who assumes responsibility for and supervises the practice of professional engineering related to the providing of services by a holder of a certificate of authorization is subject to the same standards of professional conduct and competence in respect of the services and the related practice of professional engineering as if the services were provided or the practice of professional engineering was engaged in by the member of the Association or the holder of the temporary licence.

Issuance of temporary, provisional or limited licence

18.(1) The Registrar shall issue a temporary licence, a provisional licence or a limited licence to a natural person who applies therefor in accordance with the regulations and who meets the requirements and qualifications for the issuance of the temporary licence, the provisional licence or the limited licence set out in the regulations.

Membership

18. (5) A holder of a temporary licence, a provisional licence or a limited licence is not a member of the Association.

From Ontario Regulation 941:

42. (1) Every temporary licence must specify,

- (a) the works, facilities, machinery, equipment or other property in Ontario to which the temporary licence relates;
- (b) the name of the person, firm or corporation by whom the holder of the temporary licence is employed or engaged to perform services in Ontario within the practice of professional engineering;
- (c) the name of the Member, if any, with whom collaboration is required under this Regulation; and
- (d) the period of time, not exceeding twelve months, for which the temporary licence has been issued.

42. (2) It is a condition of every temporary licence that the services within the practice of professional engineering that may be provided by the holder of the temporary licence are limited to the services specified in the temporary licence.

43. The requirements and qualifications for the issuance of a temporary licence are payment of the fee for the temporary licence and one of the following:

1. Residence in a province or territory of Canada other than Ontario and membership in an association of professional engineers in another province or territory of Canada that has objects similar to the objects of the Association and that requires qualifications for membership at least equal to the qualifications required for the issuance of a licence to engage in the practice of professional engineering in Ontario.
2. Qualifications at least equal to the qualifications required for the issuance of a licence to engage in the practice of professional engineering in Ontario.
3. Wide recognition in the field of the practice of professional engineering in respect of which the work to be undertaken under the temporary licence relates and not less than ten years experience in such field.

44. (1) It is a term and condition of every temporary licence that the holder of the temporary licence must collaborate with a Member in the practice of professional engineering in respect of the work undertaken under the temporary licence unless the holder,

- (a) is a member of an association of professional engineers in another province or territory of Canada that has objects similar to the objects of the Association and that requires qualifications for membership at least equal to the qualifications required for the issuance of a licence under this Act;
- (b) provides evidence that the holder has qualifications at least equal to the qualifications required for the issuance of a licence under this Act and that the holder is knowledgeable about all codes, standards and laws relevant to the work undertaken under the temporary licence;
- (c) provides evidence of wide recognition in the field of the practice of professional engineering relevant to the work undertaken under the temporary licence and that the holder is knowledgeable about all codes, standards and laws relevant to the work undertaken under the temporary licence; or
- (d) is performing the work outside Ontario and that work is undertaken under the temporary licence to satisfy a requirement under an Act of Ontario other than the Professional Engineers Act.

44. (2) It is a term and condition of every temporary licence held by a person who must collaborate with a Member that the holder of the temporary licence must not issue a final drawing, specification, plan, report or other document unless the Member has signed, dated and affixed the Member's seal thereto.

55.1 (1) The following are the titles and abbreviations that may be used in the practice of professional engineering by the holder of a licence or temporary licence:

5. "Professional engineer", "engineer" or "ingénieur".
6. "P.Eng." or "ing.".
