

Persian<sup>1</sup> Science, Persian Scientists and the Impact of their Discoveries on Western Civilization

(A Testimony to Science History of Iranians)

Professor Mo Jamshidi

Albuquerque, NM, USA

ABSTRACT

In this brief talk, an ambitious project, yet to begin, will be introduced. The goal is to prepare a lasting written document on the personal life stories, key contributions, discoveries, reviews of the works and the impact of Persian Scientists on Western Civilization. The entire recorded history of the Iranians (2500+ years) will be reviewed. An outline of the work will be discussed and current list of recorded scientists will be given. The author wishes to initiate useful discussions among participants in order to attract and receive the collaborations of all who may be interested in this project. Due credit will be given to all who would eventually help in this project.

Date: Friday June 18 from 4:00 to 5:00

Location: University of Waterloo – EIT 1015

Everyone welcome.Refreshment will be served.

Sponsored by: KW IEEE Joint Chapter of Signal Processing and Neural Network Societies

1.The context in which words Persia and Persian are being used are meant to refer to all Iranians, whether they are Persian, Meads, today's Azaris, Kurds, etc